

Test-Drive Your Way to Freedom – Right Here!

By Katie Yeakle

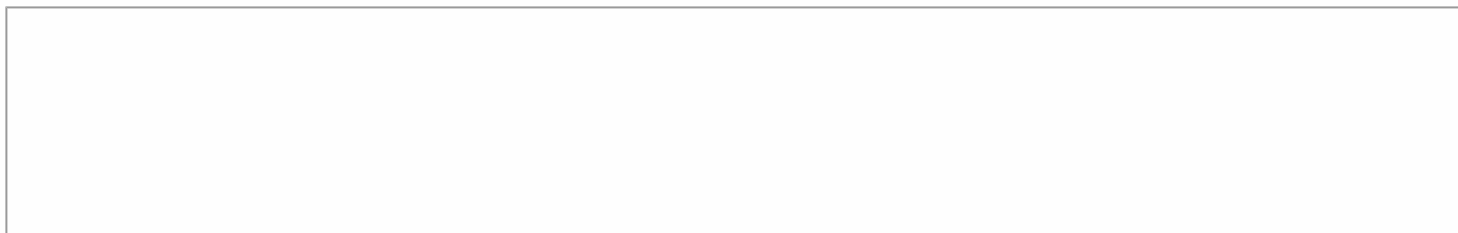

I've got a proposition for you ...

By now, you've probably heard many stories from us about writers who earn a very nice living writing from home — enjoying a kind of freedom they once dreamed of having ...

People like Guillermo Rubio, who went from working three jobs, struggling, and wondering how he'd ever have the freedom he wanted for himself, to living a life where he's in control.

Says Guillermo, "The Accelerated Program for Six-Figure Copywriting has given me that freedom plus so much more. Today I can work from anywhere in the world, with fantastic clients who value me. I thank my lucky stars every day for the blessed life I'm able to live."

Or Cathy Cairns-O'Keefe, who was working as a housekeeper because she didn't have the money to get a good education ...

"Now," says Cathy, "I find myself with more options and freedom than those who have gone to university ... Your program has truly changed the course of my life — from someone who was a bit lost but yearning for a purpose, to someone who has dynamic focus and knows exactly where she's going and why."

And then there's John Torre, who used to dread his drive to the shop each morning and pray for a way out of his 'time-for-a-paycheck' life, especially when his mom became ill and really needed him ...

"Had I not taken the initiative to pursue the writer's life, I don't know how I would've managed my mom's care during this time. For me, having the opportunity to be available 24/7 and coordinate her care made me truly appreciate this new life I have."

It's all about freedom!

That's what AWAI members who take the copywriting path tell us they cherish the most ... the fact that they can work when they want, for whom they want, from wherever they want.

If you've ever once thought, "I'd like to have that one day" ... then this is your opportunity.

For the next 48 hours, I'm inviting you to test-drive our industry-renowned Accelerated Program for Six-Figure Copywriting for a full 30 days for just $29.

That way, you can see for yourself if it's for you.

Spend a full month going through the program ...

Do the exercises ... learn the proven techniques and copywriting principles we teach ... and see what it would feel like to be a highly-paid working copywriter.

And in the end, if you feel like copywriting isn't a fit for you, no worries.

We'll refund every penny.

But don't put this off any longer ...

You can make a very good living as a copywriter. You just need to take this first step.

Remember, there's absolutely no risk on your part for trying out this program for 30 days. The only risk is if you don't take advantage of this incredible offer before it's gone. Because then you'll miss out on the life-changing freedom Guillermo, Cathy, and John cherish so dearly to this day. So go here now to take the first step toward your new life of freedom and prosperity.
